ADOPTING A TEN-POINT CHILDREN'S AGENDA FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO.

WHEREAS, The citizens of San Francisco have deep concern about the welfare of our City's children and youth, and the future of our City depends on creating an environment where children, youth and families can flourish; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco's children, youth and families are facing many difficult problems such as lack of adequate child care, school drop out, teen pregnancy, homelessness, drug abuse and domestic violence for which effective action by City government is required; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco has never had a consistent policy statement directing its actions to protect and enhance the well-being of its children, youth and families, and instead has operated in an often fragmented way with over thirty governmentally-related bodies directing various aspects of policy related to children; and

WHEREAS, A Ten-Point Children's Agenda has been developed for San Francisco by Coleman Advocates for Children and Youth, published as "Caring for the Future", June 1987, which Agenda has been endorsed by numerous individuals and groups throughout the community, and calls for -

1. Affordable housing for families
2. Plentiful child care resources
3. Safe, enriching recreation
4. High-quality public schools
5. Comprehensive social services
6. Accessible health care
7. State-of-the-Art libraries
8. Effective vocational programs

9. A rehabilitative Juvenile Justice System
10. Comprehensive planning and funding, including the establishment of a Commission on Children, Youth and Families; ^{or a coordinating body or task force} and
